

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Nancy Woster has dedicated the past 28 years to serving the health and educational needs of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Nancy began her nursing career in 1967 at Brookings Hospital in Brookings, South Dakota, as a float nurse, moving through terms as a psych nurse, a surgical nurse, a family counselor, and back to surgical nurse; and,

Whereas, Nancy joined the South Dakota Department of Health in July 1984, as an Area Three Supervisor. Through years of physical moves and changes in the department's structure, Nancy managed the daily workings of a busy, full-service public health clinic; and,

Whereas, Nancy has been a face of public health in the Pierre area, providing accurate, timely, and compassionate health education and counseling to hundreds of area residents; and,

Whereas, Nancy has dedicated her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

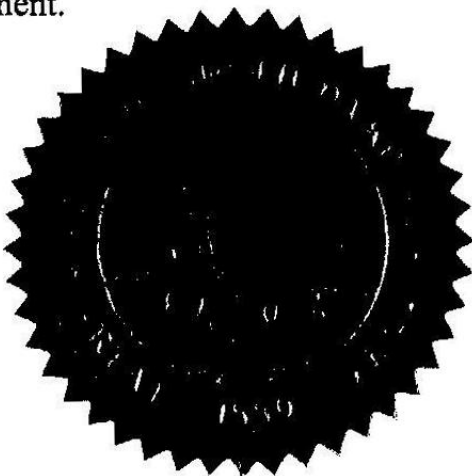

Whereas, Nancy has had an active family life, raising three children and loving and caring for her grandchildren; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 23, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of November in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
